

PHILIP MONROE

PHILIP G. MONROE, PsyD is Professor of Counseling & Psychology and the Director of the Master of Arts in Counseling degree program and Global Trauma Recovery Institute at Biblical Theological Seminary, Hatfield, Pennsylvania. He is a graduate of both Westminster Seminary and Wheaton College Graduate School. Licensed as a psychologist, he maintains a private practice with Diane Langberg & Associates of Jenkintown, Pennsylvania. Phil's areas of specialty are international and domestic trauma recovery, sexual addictions, anxiety, marital distress, and renewal for pastors, ministry leaders and their families. His academic interests include training lay and professional counselors in effective counseling processes. He has been married to Kim for 23 years and they are raising two boys. His full vita and personal, professional, and spiritual musings may be found at www.wisecounsel.wordpress.com.

REQUEST PHIL MONROE AS A SPEAKER:
speakers@biblical.edu

BIBLICAL SEMINARY

Main Campus:

200 N. Main Street, Hatfield, PA 19440

Extension Site:

4455 N. 6th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19140

215.368.5000 x153

215.368.4913 (fax)

www.biblical.edu

www.globaltraumarecovery.org

Following Jesus into the World

BIBLICALSM SEMINARY